Miss Lewis is organizing the Negro social workers in the county. She attended the New Jersey Conference for Social Workers.

The Education Committee, has met once. A visit was made to both Girls' Vocational and Boys' Vocational Schools. The problems in case of the Negro boy and girl according to school authorities are, 1) getting the right type, 2) employment.

Industry and the school both evade the responsibility of the employment of Negro youth.

Mr. Myers told about the exploratory courses being given at Robert Treat School.

The discussion brought out the fact that the educational committee might consider arranging a conference of industrialists and educational leaders. Mr. Brooks thought the problem would be best attacked at the employment end.

The annual meeting committee will be:

Dr. Parks, Mrs. Oswald, Mr. Brooks, Mr. Riley, Mrs.

12/18/39.

Janifer, Mr. Myers and Mr. Ormond.

At this time Mr. Gillette took the chair and first of all reported on the luncheon held at the Down Town Club. Twenty six had been present and heard talks by Mr. Garner, Mr. Ormond, Mr. Stavitsky and the Executive Secretary. Several persons had offered to act as team captains and have been supplied with stationery.

Dr. Bell suggested that churches might be contacted. Miss Shepard suggested Trinity Cathedral.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

U.M. Janifer, Secretary
